

It sounds like someone is paying someone off in order for television and radio stations to be exempt from the national do not call list. How can this be? I expect more from the FCC!

To put it plainly - I do not want to receive phone calls at home from ABC any more than I want calls from AT&T! Television and radio should not be exempt.

Ludicrous!!

Carla Fraser